WELCOME TO THE 2013-2014 ART GUILD SEASON!

For the fifth year, we will meet in conjunction with the Desert Gardeners for our annual "Show and Tell." Bring your summer art work and your ideas for "art in the garden" to share. We will have tables set up for any items you'd like to display or sell at the luncheon. Make your reservation for noon on October, 24 and experience the expertise of deAnza Country Club's new chef. Reservations details are below.

The 2013/2014 season will bring us a variety of presenters. You will find a preliminary calendar attached that you may use for a reference for this year's luncheon dates and presenters. Also attached are art related activities being offered for Oct/Nov. Below are a few highlights from the Borrego Art Institute (BAI) that are coming up soon:

On October 10-15, you may drop off new art depicting plants or animals for the BAI's "Floral & Fauna Show." Opening reception is October 19, 5-8pm.

Gather giftable items for the BAI's "Holiday Artisan Show." The show runs from November 2 through December 22 and products can be dropped off November 25-27.

Pottery with Ginger Dunlap-Dietz begins on November 19 with Open Studio and Private Instructions. Call the BAI for more details on her up-coming classes.

In February, the BAI will be displaying art by Art Guild members. Look for more information regarding this show in future newsletters.

As you can see we have a wonderful season of art ahead. We look forward to seeing you at the luncheons the second Thursday of each month (except October).

The cost of lunch is $16 paid at the door. Please reserve your space prior to 4pm, Monday, October 21 by emailing the Art Guild or calling the numbers listed below. De Anza has asked that we observe their dress code of no demin worn in the restaurant. Be aware the Guild is charged for all reservations called in by 4:00 on the 21st. If you cancel after that time, please be prepared to reimburse the Guild. Call: Emmy Lou Brandt (767-5567) or Beth Hart (767-5303) or email bscaartguild@juno.com.
